The German Pavilion at EXPO 2005 offers visitors a glimpse of cutting edge German technologies and research activities that can coexist with nature, and emphasizes the importance and pleasure of efforts to harmonize civilization with nature. Working on various environmental issues as part of our corporate social responsibility (CSR) efforts, DaimlerCrysler agrees to the objective and will lease a Mercedes-Benz S-Class flagship sedan and a Mercedes-Benz Viano decorated with the German Pavilion logo.

DaimlerChrysler has already leased two F-Cells to Japan Association for 2005 World Exposition (EXPO 2005). These cars will act as on-site VIP lead car on National days and Special days, scheduled for more than one hundred occasions during the EXPO 2005.
