Folk Choir Ensemble
*“Kozachen’ky”

This Ensemble is composed of 4 persons:

- musical ensemble leader, sopilca-flute player Serhiy Demchenko;
- soloist-bandura-player Dana Kulash-Chernysh;
- soloist-vocalist Oleksiy Savchyk;
- harmonica-player Mykola Chernysh.

Musical instruments:

- Bandura: an ancient folk instrument. Frescoes dated XI century of the St. Sophia Cathedral in Kyiv depict musical instrument which is recognized as an ancestor of contemporary bandura. It is a symbol of Ukrainian people spirit.
- Sopilca: folk wind instrument made of wooden material.

A repertoire of “Kozachen’ky” ensemble comprises Ukrainian folk songs: lyrical about love, honor of a home land, and also humorous depicting everyday household life of Ukrainian people. Besides plays a folk instrumental music, which is typical only for Ukrainian folklore: kozachok, hopak.
