This week at the Canada Pavilion

Welcome to the second edition of This week at the Canada Pavilion.

Each week, for the duration of the Expo, we will provide a snapshot of some of the events and activities at the Canada Pavilion.

This week: See Canadian artists perform on the Global Common 2 Stage; meet with executives from the Canadian Wheat Board; and there are still a couple of days left to meet Dr. Randall Gossen, one of our six storytellers.

For more information on these activities or to request an interview with any of the participants, please contact the Communications team at the Canada Pavilion at 0561 63 1401. Media can also contact us by e-mail at info@expo2005canada.gc.ca

Special Events

April 17 – 19: Randall Gossen

Meet Dr. Gossen, an oil executive from Calgary, Alberta who has helped build the bridge between the oil industry and environmental and social responsibility. He is one of the six Canadians featured in the public presentation of the Canada Pavilion who share their unique perspective on what it means to be Canadian.

Performing on the Global Common 2 Stage

April 18 – 19: Sampar (Samuel Parent) (3:30 pm)

Take in a live performance of caricature and illustration with Sampar, a multi-talented author and artist from Victoriaville, Québec. He will "duel" with six different Japanese cartoonists to produce a giant cartoon strip on a theme provided at the event.

April 23: Shaye (3:30 pm)

Individually, Kim Stockwood, Damhnait Doyle and Tara MacLean are three of Canada's most exceptionally talented singer-songwriters. Together as Shaye, they are one of the most exciting musical collaborations that Canada has seen in a long time. Get a taste of the East Coast with the music of this Juno Award-winning trio from Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island as they begin their series of performances on the Global Common 2 stage.

Visiting this Week in the Manulife VIP Lounge of the Canada Pavilion

April 20 and 22: Canadian Wheat Board

Featuring the Executive Vice President of the Canadian Wheat Board, activities will include business meetings with current and potential clients in Japan, as well as a reception.
