

This week at the Canada Pavilion

Welcome to the third edition of This week at the Canada Pavilion. Each week, for the duration of the Expo, we will provide a snapshot of some of the events and activities at the Canada Pavilion.

This week: Golden Week starts on April 29th; see Canadian artists Shaye perform on the Global Common 6 Stage; learn about Ontario's planned events in the Manulife VIP Lounge, including the Japan Society of Canada delegation's visit to the Pavilion. For more information on these activities or to request an interview with any of the participants, please contact the Communications team at the Canada Pavilion at 0561 63 5788. Media can also contact us by e-mail at info@expo2005canada.gc.ca

Special Events

April 29: Golden Week (April 29th - May 5th) begins

Golden Week, a collection of four national holidays in Japan, is one of the busiest weeks of the year. The Expo site in Aichi is sure to be abuzz with energy and the Canada Pavilion as well.

Performing on the Global Common 6 Stage

April 24, 25, 26 (13h30) 29, 30 (12:30 pm): Shaye

Individually, Kim Stockwood, Damhnait Doyle and Tara MacLean are three of Canada's most exceptionally talented singer-songwriters. Together as Shaye, they are one of the most exciting musical collaborations Canada has seen in a long time. Get a taste of the East Coast with the music of this Juno Award-winning trio from Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island as they perform all week and through Golden Week on the Global Common 6 stage.

Visiting this Week in the Manulife VIP Lounge of the Canada Pavilion

April 23 - April 29: Canada & Japan - New Horizons: "Partners in Excellence"

Starting in Tokyo and continuing to Nagoya, this Trade Mission and Automotive Seminar is organized by the Japan Society of Canada and the Automotive Parts Manufacturers' Association. It will feature participants and speakers from diverse backgrounds coming together in an effort to gain insight and develop plans for nurturing future industrial partnerships with a global perspective for the future. Guests include the Ontario Minister of Economic Development and Trade, Mr. Joseph Cordiano as well as academic leaders and senior officials from the industrial sector.

April 25: Commissioner Generals from all pavilions are invited by the Canada Pavilion

The Canada pavilion is inviting Commissioner Generals from all pavilions to experience Canada at Expo 2005. A special reception at Manulife VIP Lounge will enable all attendees to sample Canadian products, while fostering good working relations.

Coming Soon

May 5: Anne of Green Gables Day

The Canada Pavilion is celebrating Children's Day with a special event dedicated to Anne of Green Gables. Several events and activities have been planned to enable visitors to have a first-hand experience of the beloved Canadian fictional character, Anne of Green Gables.
