Seminar on Tunisian Tourism in Nagoya

The Tunisian Embassy has organized on April the 21st, 2005 in the Hotel Westin Castle Nagoya a seminar the theme of which is the Tunisian Tourism. This seminar is called to trigger the increase of Japanese tourists' visits and stays in Tunisia. The event has taken place in presence of H.E. M. Tijani Haddad, Tunisian Minister of Tourism who came to Japan both to have contacts with Japanese Tour Operators and to visit Expo AICHI 2005. Many presentations have been made during that meeting about the touristic Tunisian Product (diving, hunting, Saharan, Beach, Cultural and Archeological, Golf, Sport, Thalassotherapy...) and transport means between Tunisia and Japan (airlines Tunis Air, Air France, Lufthansa).

The seminar has also dealt with other topics in connection with Tunisian Tourism, such as Tunisian cooking.

Fashion show

The meeting was followed by a diner during which a show has been performed in his first part by the Belly dancer Haifa Bouzouita and the musical Group HAIFA composed of three Musicians. The second part of the evening was animated by a fashion show where Tunisian Top Models presented a collection of traditional and wedding dresses.

A Japanese Painter exhibits at the Pavilion

Beginning from the 1st Jury and during one month, a Japanese Painter, Shin Ohmi is going to exhibit his work in the first floor of the Tunisian Pavilion. This was the 23rd of April the purpose of the discussion between the Pavilion management and the Painter who achieved his paintings in Tunisia recently when he has gone to the South where he was impressed by the beauty of the Oasis.
