Aichi Expo visited by H.E.M. Tijani Haddad, Tunisian Minister of Tourism...

M. Tijani Haddad, Tunisian Minister of Tourism has undertaken on Friday, April the 22nd, a visit of the Aichi Expo. He began by visiting the Tunisian Pavilion where a group of Japanese pupils interviewed him about the Tunisian life like the main cooking dishes, then, conducted by bus he moved to discover the different sites of Aichi EXPO. Finally he left the Grounds towards SETO where its Mayor was waiting for him, knowing that SETO is the sister city of Nabeul, a Touristic area, famous for its pottery and ceramics.

...And by Mrs Aziza Htira, Head of UNFT

Mrs Aziza Htira, Head of the National Union of Tunisian Women (UNFT) has also visited on the 24th of April the most important Pavilions of Expo Aichi, including Japanese Pavilion. She has been received the same day at the Tunisian Pavilion where she discussed with the management about the ways to associate our participation in Aichi to celebrating the Tunisian women's day which corresponds to the 13th of August every year.

Visitors have their names written in Arabic characters in the Tunisian Pavilion

If you happen to come to the Tunisian Pavilion you shall observe a long file of visitors and wonder what the reason is. In fact a Tunisian craftsman is giving in nice Arabic characters the visitor's Japanese name. An unforgettable souvenir, isn't it?
