

“Golden Week” in the Pavilion of Ukraine

A wide range of sightseeing and entertaining events will be arranged by the Pavilion of Ukraine for the period of Golden Week at the 2005 World Exposition, Aichi, Japan to enhance tighter cultural exchange between all participating countries and visitors.

The schedule is as follows:

May 2, 4, 6, 7

Time: 17.00 – 19.00

Venue: Event Space, Global Common 4

Feature: Youth Disco – from Ukrainian folk dance music to most famous contemporary remixes in Ukrainian DJ’s interpretation.

Through the Week

Venue: Pavilion of Ukraine, Global Common 4

Folk Choir Ensemble “Kozachen’ky”

A repertoire of “Kozachen’ky” ensemble comprises Ukrainian folk songs: lyrical about love, honor of a home land, and also humorous depicting everyday household life of Ukrainian people. They also play folk instrumental music, which is typical only for Ukrainian folklore: kozachok, hopak.

During the day all visitors will be fascinated by Ukrainian folk Easter-egg and Petrykivskyy pattern painters, who give a unique opportunity to all EXPO visitors to experience the process of creating a folk masterpiece.