MEDIA RELEASE

This Week at the Australian Pavilion

MARTINEZ

The highly accomplished Australian classical guitar family Martinez will play a series of public and VIP performances at the Australian Pavilion from 27-31 May.

The three guitar maestros of Martinez - father Victor Martinez and his sons Andro and Duano play a unique fusion of music from Latin to jazz to contemporary music – all with a passionate and flamboyant enthusiasm and consummate skill.

Martinez is scheduled to perform a live show at the “Sand Bar” which opens at the Australian Pavilion Food and Beverage corner every Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights from 19:00 in the evening. Come enjoy an Australian night with great beer, wine and an acoustic guitar live.

CHROME

One of Australia’s most innovative ‘street theatre’ performance companies ‘Chrome’ will perform daily at the Australian Pavilion from Wednesday 25 May to Friday 3 June. Fun, interactive and always intriguing, Chrome have long been a major attraction at festivals in Australia.

Chrome’s unision precision, elegance and humor has enchanted and bemused audiences around the globe. This athletic trio presents a mobile feat of performance vignettes with song, dance and instruments. These structured episodes create opportunities for linking improvisations using the audience, which often leads to moments of poignancy or hilarity.

FROM SYDNEY WITH A SMILE – DAVIDSON HIGH SCHOOL PERFORMERS

The raw energy and talent of the performers from one of Sydney’s leading performance high schools will ring out across Global Common 6 this week to celebrate the 25th Anniversary for Nagoya and Sydney’s sister city relations. The students of Davidson High School will perform the live contemporary modern dance routines at the GC6 stage.

In addition Australian Pavilion&s Australian Resident Company (ARC) will continue is performances. Come and Experience Australia at the 2005 World Expo Aichi Japan!
