

PRESS RELEASE

“Experience the traditional Thai dance performances at Thai Pavilion”

It is a great pleasure to invite you to experience the special events of traditional Thai dance performances at Thai Pavilion and event space in Global Common 6 from May 27th to May 29th, 2005.

Thai Dance is a graceful and has played an indispensable historical times to the present intertwined with the beliefs, Thailand and is therefore people. It has been kept alive continuous line of succession Ayutthaya and Rattanakosin interpretative performance. It part of Thai way of life from day. Thai dance is closely traditions and customs of important to the lives of the through royal patronage in a through the Sukhothai, periods.

Thai dance may be divided into two major styles: folk dance and classical dance. Each of the four regions of Thailand has its own folk dances that are usually associated with agricultural and social activities, such as rice planting, harvesting, festivals, and religious celebrations. Basically, northern dances are elegant and graceful. Whereas those of the South and Northeast are more active and fun-filled but still retain the fundamental grace of Thai dance in general. Central and eastern dances are clearly linked to the agrarian lifestyle of the people.

Thai Pavilion proudly presents the traditional Thai dances of four regions in different styles as followings.

Performances :

Date	Time	Detail	Place
May 27th, Friday	11:00	Rabam Lopburi (Folk dance: Central)	Thai Pavilion
		Naree Sri Isan (Folk dance: Northeast)
	14:00	Manohra (Dance of Sacrifice by fire: South)	Thai Pavilion
		Talee Kipus (Folk dance: South)
	17.00	Rabam Srivichai (Folk dance: South)	Thai Pavilion
		Sri Kotaboon (Folk dance: Northeast)

May 28th, Saturday	11.00	Rabam Rom (Umbrella dance: North)	Thai Pavilion
		Serng Pong Lang (Folk dance: Northeast)
	14:00	Manohra (Dance of Sacrifice by fire: South)	Thai Pavilion
		Fon Poothai (Tribe dance: Northeast)
	17.00	Rabam Srivichai (Folk dance: South)	Thai Pavilion
		Tab Lan (Folk dance: Northeast)
May 29th, Sunday	11.00	Rabam Lopburi (Folk dance: Central)	Thai Pavilion
		Naree Sri Isan (Folk dance: Northeast)
	13:20	Manora (Dance of Sacrifice by fire: South)	Event Space Global Common 6
		Talee Kipus (Folk dance: South)
	15.20	Krida Pinihan (Glory dance: Central)	Event Space Global Common 6
		Sri Kotraboorn (Folk dance: Northeast)

THAI PAVILION

Global Common 6, 1533-1, Ibaragabasama, Nagakute-cho,
Aichi 481-1101, Japan. Tel: 0561.64.7029 Fax: 0561.64.7034
Email: thailand_pavilion@yahoo.com