INDIAN HENNA TATTOO

AT THE SINGAPORE PAVILION

Would you like to enjoy temporary tattoo? Come to Singapore Pavilion and get traditional Indian henna tattoo for free by Singaporean Indian henna artist Mr. Charles Williams.

About Henna Tattoo:

We humans are fascinated with body decoration since the beginning of life on earth. Henna is thought to have first come into use in Egypt for coloring fingertips and finger nails, palms of hands, and soles of feet. In India, the women utilize it to beautify themselves before big occasions such as wedding and holidays.

About the Henna artist, Charles Williams:

Mr. Charles Williams has been performing Indian classical, semi-classical, folk, contemporary and fusion dances since 1985 with People's Association-PACT and Apsaras Arts. Also he has been professional make-up, body painting artist since 1997.
