

INDONESIA PAVILION

P.O. BOX 160
NAGAKUTE AREA, EXPO 1005, AICHI
480-001, JAPAN
Cellular Phone : 08030719466, 09091705741

Republic of Indonesia attends to The World Expo 2005 – Aichi, Japan. The theme of Indonesia Pavilion is People and Nature in Harmony, which performs source of natures, peoples living and the culture diversity of Indonesia. According to the mission, the pavilion is designed with the ultimate diversity of Indonesia. The exterior designing of the pavilion is dominated design coming from East part of Indonesia, which is Long House ‘Kalimantan’, Rice Barn House of ‘Toraja’, ‘Asmat’ Statue, and also ‘Garuda Wisnu Kencana’ from Balinese Craft.

The President of The Republic of Indonesia, HE Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono and the First Lady, Madam Ani Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono visited to The Expo 2005, Aichi on Tuesday, June 31st 2005. President and the parties arrived at 10.25 am. President welcomed at Japan Pavilion by Mr. Nakamura (General Secretary of World Exposition 2005 – Aichi), Mr. Asami (Chief of Protocol of World Exposition 2005 – Aichi) and Mr. Nakamura (Director of Japan Pavilion).

After that, the President visited to Indonesia Pavilion and welcomed by General Commissioner of Indonesia Pavilion, Mrs. Retno Pudji Budi Astuti. They continued visit to Pacific Islands Pavilion. The President saw the exhibits of the pavilion.

After The President had having lunch with Mr. Taizo Watanabe at The Reception Room, Guest House at Expo Site, he visited to Toyota Pavilion. The President tried the Toyota’s futuristic vehicle, and also saw the robot attraction performance at the pavilion.

The last pavilion where the President visited was Japan Railways (JR). This pavilion presented the third generation of maglev super express-rail to President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono by 3D Theater.

The President and the parties leaved the Expo at 2.45 pm and continued the trip to Tokyo to meet Prime Minister Junichiro Koizumi.