

Press release of Romania Pavilion

Special Romanian program– three months after the opening of the World Exposition

June 21 – Romania Pavilion at EXPO 2005 Aichi is preparing a special program to mark three months after the official opening of the World Exposition. Thursday, June 23, at the EXPO Dome, starting at 17 o'clock we invite you to take part to a regal of Romanian rhythms. With a Romanian and international repertoire, we'll offer you the best of our Pavilion program. For around two hours, you'll have the occasion to meet young Romanian artists from "4 FOR MUSIC" string quartet, "Bucharest Brass Quintet" and "FONETHIC" group, together with the ethno-Balkan group EINUIEA. The cello soloist Florin Mitrea and EINUIEA will create the musical framework for the contemporary dance show of the well-known Romanian choreographer and dancer Vava Stefanescu, and for the classical ballet dancers Aliss and Cristian Tarcea.

In the second part of the show, the special guests of Romania Pavilion – Jamie Davis band, will play a jazz music concert.