

Press release of Romania Pavilion

The 1,000,000th visitor at Romania Pavilion!

July 18 • The lucky 1,000,000th visitor at Romania Pavilion already received its gift. Masuda Yasuhiko, from Nagoya, together with his wife and the two children, received from the Commissioner General of Romania, Ferdinand Nagy, secretary of state in the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, a consistent gift including photo albums with images from Romania, a book in Japanese about the Romanian composer George Enescu, pins with the Romanian and Japanese flag, as well as with the logo of Romania Pavilion, a T-shirt with the logo of Romania Pavilion, CDs on Romania and with Romanian well-known classical and rock music. Last but not least, he had the occasion to taste the Romanian foods from the restaurant inside the Pavilion.

Romania participates at World EXPO 2005 Aichi Japan with a national Pavilion coordinated by the Romanian Ministry of Foreign established for the current EXPO is, according to the General Commissioner of Romania Section, Ferdinand Nagy, of 1.5-2 million.