Canada Pavilion Welcomes Renowned Canadian Chef Susur Lee

Date: July 23, 2005

The Canada Pavilion at Expo 2005 is proud to announce the visit of Susur Lee, one of Canada's most celebrated chefs, to the Canada Pavilion on July 24 and 25, 2005.

During this special two-day visit, Chef Lee will meet with the young chefs at the Canada Pavilion and demonstrate one of his signature dishes, which is bound to become a favorite at the Canada Pavilion for the remainder of the Expo. Chef Lee will also tour the Expo site, accompanied by Chef Murphy, executive chef at the Canada Pavilion.

Susur Lee grew up in Hong Kong and now resides and works in Toronto, Ontario. He has received rave reviews for his culinary talents and his restaurants are known around the world as hotspots frequented by celebrities and food aficionados. A Canadian television crew and a food journalist will accompany Chef Lee in Japan, documenting his trip to Expo and to area attractions. Chef Lee's visit is supported by the Japan National Tourist Organization and Japan Airlines.
