

PRESS RELEASE

Andes Amazonian Pavilion

Afroecuadorian Life Music Show

MARABU AT THE EXPO 2005

Do you know that Ecuador is one of the most cultural diverse countries?

A land of contrasts is perhaps the most common phrase between people who have enjoyed a journey to Ecuador...

At the Andes Amazonian Pavilion, the Office of Ecuador will be showing in August, the month of its National Day, a small sample of its cultural diversity.

Do not miss this African drums` sound together with the charm of Andean Amazonian music.

Where?
Commercial Area Stage

When?
August 3rd
August 4th
August 7th

At what time?

From 11:00 to 19:00. Performances every 15 minutes.

*According to the number of visitors, performers can also share their music up to 20:00

We are looking forward to your visit!