

Press release of Romania Pavilion

2nd of August - Romania Pavilion at the World Exposition 2005 had 1 of August the great honor to receive Her Imperial Highness Princess Sayako. The distinguished guest take part to a cultural program in the Pavilion – a classical program featured by the “4 for Music” string quartet and a folkloric program of artists from the north of the country.

Her Imperial Highness has been accompanied by the Commissioner General of Romania Section, Ferdinand Nagy, secretary of state in the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the plenipotentiary and extraordinary ambassador of Romania in Japan, Aurelian Neagu.

Romania participates to the World Exposition Aichi Japan with a National Pavilion coordinated by the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Until now, the Pavilion has been visited by more than 1 million persons.