

MEDIA RELEASE

SINGAPORE NATIONAL DAY CELEBRATIONS

The Singapore Pavilion will be celebrating Singapore's 40th National Day on 9 August 2005 with a host of exciting events:

1 August to 8 August 2005

Share with Singapore your well-wishes and receive a unique souvenir!

We would like to invite visitors to the Singapore Pavilion to share their well-wishes for Singapore on its National Day at the 2nd level of the Singapore Pavilion.

Visitors are invited to pen their well-wishes which would be used to decorate the wall of the pavilion. Participating visitors will receive a souvenir, and also stand to win a return ticket to Singapore courtesy of Singapore Airlines at the Grand Draw.

9 August 2005 from 16:00

Singapore on Parade

Be entertained by a special parade consisting of a 40-performer contingent. The parade will commence from the Singapore Pavilion, moving along the Global Loop and finally ending at the Global Common 6 stage area for a special National Day performance. (Please refer to the attached map for the parade route.)

9 August 2005 17:30

Come Celebrate Your Birthday With Us

Singapore celebrates its 40 years of Independence on the 9th of August. If your birthday falls on the 9th of August, and you are one of the first 50 people to be present at the Singapore Pavilion at 17:30. Kindly present a proof of your birth date and you will get a present from us.
