

愛知万博カナダ・パビリオン

WWW.EXPO2005CANADA.GC.CA

EXPO 2005 AICHI

25|03|05 » 25|09|05

No. 19: August 14-20, 2005

This Week at the Canada Pavilion

This week: Listen to the beautiful sounds of Vancouver-based John Gilliat and his acoustic guitar; the Canada Pavilion welcomes its 2.5-millionth visitor, less than one month after greeting its 2-millionth visitor on July 21, 2005.

For more information on these activities or to request an interview with any of the participants, please contact the Communications team at the Canada Pavilion at 0561 64 5788. Media can also contact us by e-mail at info@expo2005canada.gc.ca.

Performing on Global Common Stages

August 16 (3:15 pm): John Gilliat on Global Common 2 Stage

August 16 and 17 (12:15 pm): Special performances on Global Common 1 Stage

Vancouver-based acoustic guitarist John Gilliat is an internationally acclaimed performer renowned for his incredible technique, which owes much to the Flamenco tradition. Thousands of copies of John's four albums have been sold to date and his latest album, "Beyond Boundaries," has also been well received in Japan. He has toured all over the world, including three successful Japanese tours, enchanting audiences with his technique and passion. Among his many accomplishments as a musician, John Gilliat has had the honour of playing for Canada's former Prime Minister, the Right Honourable Jean Chrétien. Don't miss this chance to get to know John Gilliat and his beautiful homage to Flamenco. For more information please visit <http://www.johngilliat.com>.

Coming next week at the Canada Pavilion: The Canada Pavilion is hosting Toronto-based Karen Levine, the internationally acclaimed author of Hana's Suitcase. This poignant book tells the true story of Hana Brady, a girl killed at Auschwitz, and how her suitcase came to be a part of the Tokyo Holocaust Education Resource Center. To find out more visit <http://www.hanassuitcase.ca/>.

For more information, visit the Canada Pavilion Web site at www.expo2005canada.gc.ca

Did you know...

Until August 19, you can vote for your favourite film among the five finalists in the National Film Board's In Vivo Web animation competition organized for Expo 2005 in Aichi, Japan. For more information visit www.nfb.ca/aichi.