

HER IMPERIAL HIGHNESS PRINCESS NORINO MIYA VISITED NEPAL PAVILION

August 2005, Aichi Expo, Japan

Her Imperial Highness Princess Norino Miya of Japan visited Nepal Pavilion on 2nd August 2005, Tuesday at 10:15 a.m. The directors from Parimita Handloom Industries & The Organizing Group of Himalayas welcomed the Princess and the other representatives. The Pavilion director Mr. Roshan Shakya explained her about the temple and its rich art and architecture built inside the Nepal Pavilion. In one corner one of the artists was demonstrating the wood carving work. Besides that, the famous Nepali dancers from NASAA SENA Academy entertained her with the Nepali folk dance Resham Firiri. She was very glad that she communicated with the dancers for a while. She was extremely delighted when she viewed the rich Nepali art and architecture, Nepali culture and so on. All the members of Nepal Pavilion were pleased to see Her Imperial Highness Princess of Japan. The respect which she showed towards Nepal and Nepali people was commendable.

Further information :

It is our great privilege to inform you that His Imperial Highness Prince Akishino Fumihito along with Her Imperial Highness Princess Akishino Kiko, their two daughters Her Imperial Highness Princess Mako and Her Imperial Highness Princess Kako will visit Nepal Pavilion on 11th August 2005, Thursday.

The frequent official visits made by such honorable personnel depict the reputation of Nepal Pavilion and Nepal's participation in this Aichi Expo 2005.