

“DAY OF CZECH MUSIC” – CZECH REPUBLIC PAVILION
REGISTRATION OF MUSICIANS AND DISTRIBUTION OF FREE TICKETS
18.8.2005

Due to great interest on the part of the public, there has been a change to the method of registration of amateur musicians for the “Day of Czech Music” and the distribution of free tickets to EXPO 2005 Aichi, which will be given to the first 100 applicants. Amateur musicians who fulfil the conditions for taking part in the “Day of Czech Music” at the Czech Republic Pavilion must register before performing at the email address petr.stemberk@expo2005.cz. They will then receive a place in the order of performers (and will be given a number). The distribution of tickets will take place on 18.8.2005 from 9:00 to 10:00 in front of the Koen Nishi station building on the LINIMO train line. There all you have to do is register with the hostesses wearing the Czech flag and pick up a free admission voucher! Musicians who are unable to perform at the Day of Czech Music for time reasons will be politely refused.

Conditions for taking part in the “Day of Czech Music” at the Czech Republic Pavilion, as the show of amateur musicians taking place on 18.8. 2005 has been titled, are one’s own musical instrument on which the musician must have been playing for at least two years, and the courage to demonstrate your art in front of visitors to the pavilion in a performance lasting a maximum of five minutes.
