

HIS IMPERIAL HIGHNESS PRINCE & PRINCESS ALONG WITH THEIR DAUGHTERS VISITED NEPAL PAVILION

August 2005, Aichi Expo, Japan

His Imperial Highness Prince Akishino Fumihito along with Her Imperial Highness Princess Akishino Kiko, their two daughters Mako and Her Imperial Highness Princess Kako of Japan visited Nepal Pavilion on 11th August 2005, Thursday at 03:20 p.m. The directors from Parimita Handloom Industries & The Organizing Group of Himalayas welcomed them and the other representatives. The Pavilion director Mr. Roshan Shakya explained them about the temple and its rich art and architecture and about the Nepali products displayed inside the Nepal Pavilion. In one corner one of the artists was demonstrating the wood carving work. They were extremely delighted when they viewed the rich Nepali art and architecture, Nepali products and so on. All the members of Nepal Pavilion were pleased to see the Imperial family of Japan. The respect which they showed towards Nepal and Nepali people was commendable.

The frequent official visits made by such honorable personnel depict the reputation of Nepal Pavilion and Nepal's participation in this Aichi Expo 2005.

For more information

Roshan Shakya
Pavilion Director
Ph : 090-6664-1983