“Romanian traditions from Maramures county”

2nd of September – Romania Pavilion at the World EXPO 2005 Aichi Japan is organizing on the 3rd of September, in the EXPO Plaza, between 12.30 and 13.00 o'clock a special performance “Romanian traditions from Maramures county”. Maramures county, situated in the North of Romania is well known for the color of the costumes, the specific music and the well-preserved traditions. The Japanese visitors will have the occasion to watch the “Dubasii din Valea Izei”, a traditional group from that area, performing periodically in Romania Pavilion at EXPO.

The Romanian Pavilion at the EXPO will prepare more cultural surprises for you in the coming weeks! We are waiting for you to join us!
