

Press Release

The Spanish Pavilion at EXPO Aichi 2005 puts the ceramics hexagons and other materials up for sale

The Spanish Pavilion at EXPO Aichi 2005 will put up for sale some of its most important materials that all throughout these past six months have been the symbols of Spain's presence at the EXPO. The materials that will be on sale are as follows:

1) Ceramic Hexagon pieces: "Celosías"

- Ceramic hexagons from the east and north Spanish Pavilion façade
- 450 additional pieces

2) Harvest of Paradise's sculptures created by the famous Spanish designer Javier Mariscal

3) IT equipment

Companies and autonomous professionals can participate on the purchase of these materials, with residence in Japan or in any other country as long as they have a legal representation in Japan.

All the materials will be sold as complete sets, there will be no possibility of obtaining certain pieces or equipments separately. It will all be sold in its totality.

On the other hand, the 168 ceramic hexagon pieces that were put on a charity auction today 10th of September in Tokyo, have raised the quantity of 3.100.000 JPY. These pieces were donated by the Spanish Pavilion to Médecins Sans Frontières Japan for their medical humanitarian aid activities.

Ceramics from the east and north Spanish Pavilion façade

It is formed by 10.000 hexagonal pieces. The totality of these pieces will be offered at a prize of 2.000.000 JPY. From this prize, companies and autonomous professionals can raise their offers.

450 hexagonal pieces

These 450 hexagonal pieces have not been used for the final construction of the Pavilion and the prize offered will be from 4.500.000 JPY.

Harvest of Paradise Sculptures by Javier Mariscal

The sculptures are actually installed at the Harvest of Paradise room at the Spanish Pavilion. They were designed by the famous Spanish artist Javier Mariscal and they will be sold in its totality not being possible its division in different parts. They will be offered at a minimum prize of 14.000.000 JPY.

IT equipment

Those interested in the purchase of the IT equipments will have to buy them in its totality. They will be offered at a minimum prize of 600.000 JPY.

All the information and details regarding the procedures of the purchase can be found at www.expoaichi2005.com from the 11th of September.

Deadline for purchase: All the offers must be done by e-mail from the 11th until the 15th of September (07,00h.- 18,00h.)

Contact details: Ms. Eiko Suzuki eiko@expo-int.com
From 12th until the 15th of September
(09,00h.- 18,00h.)
Telephone: 052 775 7477