

Press release of Romania Pavilion

Join us in the “Romania Day in Nagoya”

10 of September – Romania Pavilion at the World EXPO 2005 Aichi Japan is organizing on the 12 of September a seven hours performance “Romania Day in Nagoya”, in Nagoya, “Sakae Stage Oasis 21”. Starting with 12.45 until 19.45 will offer you the best from our culture a marathon-show.

From 12.45, the worldwide famous pan-pipe singer Nicolae Voiculescu will offer to the Japanese public a concert “Romania Project”. “Camerata Transilvania” and the Japanese piano player Shoko Takeuchi will offer you between 13.45 and 14.30 a concert of Romanian classical music. Starting with 15.00 until 17.00 you’ll have the occasion to watch a recital of lied held by young Romanian scholars coordinated by the world acclaimed soprano Mariana Nicolesco. We’ll end the special day of Romania by a “Parallel through time” – a performance of contemporary music and dances, to be held between 18.30 and 19.45.

The event from 12 of September is closing the series of events organized in Japan by Romania Pavilion at the World EXPO that took place between 8 of September and 12 of September – “The Cultural week of Romania in Japan”. On that occasion, one of the most sounding names in the Romanian culture held various events – conferences, concerts, musical performances - in the EXPO site, in Tokyo and Nagoya. Our aim was to get a higher cultural profile in Japan, taking advantage of the generous frame already offer us by the EXPO in the last six months.

Romania’s participation at the EXPO 2005 Aichi Japan is coordinated by the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Since the beginning of EXPO, our Pavilion has been visited by more than 1.500.000 persons.
