

An Overview of the Aichi EXPO Video and Archives Center

The Aichi EXPO Video and Archives Center was organized by the Information Group belonging to the Japan Association for the 2005 World Exposition. The Aichi EXPO Video and Archives Center produces and controls EXPO official video.

We distribute up-to-date pictures on the EXPO official web site, cellular phone sites and PDP screens which are located in Aichi and Gifu pref. We also distribute the EXPO Weekly Highlight Video News to broadcasters around the world via Reuter's World News Services every Saturday.

Our services include a tape-copy of the Host's coverage and transmission of a TV signal abroad.

Members of the Aichi EXPO Video and Archives Center include the information Group of Japan Association for the 2005 World Exposition as well as broadcasters and production companies in Nagoya. We would appreciate your understanding regarding our work. We are happy to provide our facilities in order to support your activities at Aichi EXPO.
